OFF PISTE

40TH BIRTHDAY APRÈS-SKI PARTY

Being an event organiser, Nicola Hogan knew there was no way she would be able to pass her 40th birthday without some sort of celebration. So, instead of going out for a few drinks, or a nice meal, Nicola decided to go for something... well... a little more adventurous. So, not having a Lear jet available to whisk her friends off to Switzerland, Nicola thought she would bring the Alps to them. The Snow is Falling and the Slopes are Calling Après-Ski Party was held at the Sue Ryder grounds in Nettlebed, in specialy-erected giant Teepees. Guests where greeted with a glass of hot Gilihwein while being entertained over an open fire by a fabulous close-up magician before enjoying an enormous Swiss banquet with dishes including Raclette, cheese fondues, and Swedish meat balls. The entertainment (and drinking) went on through the night with a special guest appearance by Abba tribute band Fabba, and, it even snowed. Next year we think Nicola should take us somewhere nice; apparently the Arabian desert is nice.
